THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY MONDAY EVENING WILL BE ASKED TO RESIGN

Next Monday evening the Board of Supervisors will meet in Tombstone. At the meeting the District Attorney of Cochise county will be asked to resign his office. This will come as a surprise, because it is but a short time ago that the Board made the appointment of Mr. C. L. Cunningham to fill the office made vacant through the death of Seth Leavenworth, the regularly elected officer. The reason for this action upon the part of the board of supervisors is that information is in their possession that Mr. Cunningham violated the oath of his office in having accepted money, in the shape of a present, while officially acting as a county officer, and which is contrary to the statutes made and provided.

The circumstances under which the board will act are these: It will be remembered that some time ago a man named Joseph Hughes was arrested in Bisbee upon the request of the sheriff of Brown county, Texas, for an alleged crime committed in that state some years previous. He was taken to Tombstone to await the arrival of officers with requisition papers. While confined in the county jail, strenuous efforts were made by writs of habeas corpus, as well as all the legal technicalities of the law being brought into play, in the endeavor to avoid the return of the prisoner Hughes to Texas. Briefly, it will also be remembered, that finally the Texas sheriff did manage to get his prisoner out of the county and territory, and safely lodged him in the Texas jail. It was alleged at the time that this was made possible through the assistance and connivance of Mr. Cunningham. Intimations of a consideration for such service were made among a few, and in a letter received in this city some days ago the sheriff of Brown county, Texas, states "that he did pay Mr. Cunningham the sum of TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS" in the shape of a present.

The letter can not be used here in full, but the following are extracts therefrom: "If you want some one to abuse in the Jno. Humphrys case (the man you call Joe Hughes), why, you had better jump on Tom Flannigan. * * * Yes, I paid Cunningham $25.00, not for any charge made, for he did not charge me one cent. He wanted nothing and would take nothing for his services and so I made him a present of $25.00. * * * Yes, sir, Cunningham was my legal adviser, and he suggested nothing that was not right. * * * I did not see Cunningham the morning I left. I did the night before, and I showed him my message from the governor, and we both knew and discussed same, that if it came I could go just as soon as the requisition papers arrived."

This letter of Sheriff Denham's is to be used at the coming meeting of the board as a basis for the request for Mr. Cunningham's resignation. It is also known that a prominent attorney of Tombstone went to Mr. Cunningham and asked him if "he had received any money from Sheriff Denham, and that Cunningham in reply to that interrogatory, replied "that he had, and that he did not intend to return it."

The Board of Supervisors will proceed under paragraph 1082, Section 155, of Chapter 6 of the statutes, which reads: "When he (the district attorney) receives money or property in his official capacity, he shall deliver a receipt therefor to the person from whom he receives it, and use a duplicate with the clerk of the board of supervisors."

They will also act under the section which provides "that any judicial officer who asks, or receives any emolument, gratuity or reward, or any promise thereof, except such as may be authorized by law, for doing any official act, is guilty of a misdemeanor."

The Review, desiring to obtain a statement from Mr. Cunningham, that it might pursue its customary policy of giving to the public both sides of the question and anything that Mr. Cunningham might wish to say in his own behalf, telephoned to Tombstone, and had a messenger sent out over that city in the endeavor to find him, but the report came that it was an impossibility to locate the district attorney.

DISCUSS NAVAL ARCHITECTURE

New York, Nov. 19.—The eleventh general meeting of the society of naval architecture and marine engineers began in this city today and will continue until Saturday.

Many interesting papers are scheduled to be read and discussed among them being one by Charles R. Haysome on the design and building of the 31,000 ton steamships Minnesota and Dakota. Another paper will be some notes on the performance of the torpedo vessels of the United States navy at sea by Lieutenant Floyd H. Chandler, U. S. N.

BOSTON TO HEAR GOV. CUMMINS.

Boston, Mass., Nov. 19.—The Boston Merchants' association holds its annual banquet tonight and in accordance with its custom, the association has invited a man of national prominence to deliver the principal address. The speaker this year is to be Governor Cummins of Iowa, who will explain to them members of the association his views on tariff reform. The subject is one in which the Boston merchants are naturally very much interested and the address of Governor Cummins is eagerly awaited.

FEDERATION OF LABOR IN FAVOR OF OPEN SHOP

Boston, Nov. 19.—The American Federation of Labor today disposed summarily of the "open shop" issue, as raised in the case of William A. Miller, now employed in the government printing office at Washington, and the Miller case itself, by unanimously declaring in favor of a union shop in the government as well as in private enterprises, and by petitioning President Roosevelt to re-examine evidence offered against Miller, and it verified, to remove Miller. Although the resolution adopted presented the Federation's views on both the "open shop" and the Miller case, the issues are not entirely distinct. The examination of the Miller case is not requested because Miller is non-union, the circumstance formerly urged as the reason for his removal, but because the Federation believes Miller is "totally unfit to be in charge of working people."

Weather Prognostication.

Washington, Nov. 19.—Forecast for Arizona: Fair in south, rain in northern portion Friday and Saturday.

NICE BUSINESS FOR A PRIEST

Denver, Colo., Nov. 19.—Rev. Felix Lepore, pastor of the Mt. Carmel Catholic church, and another Italian, named Joe Sorici, were fatally wounded at 9:30 tonight in a duel, supposed to have arisen over a game of cards in the priest's apartments in the church building. Father Lepore was shot twice in the abdomen and once in the face and Sorici was shot once in the abdomen.

There were no eye witnesses to the shooting. They were both taken to St. Joseph's hospital, where it is said neither of the wounded men can recover.

Father Lepore has been a resident of Denver for a long time. Sorici recently came from Pittsburgh, Pa.

STEADILY CLIMBING UPWARDS IS THE REVIEWS CIRCULATION

Classification of routes and reorganizing the old on Wednesday day prevented the force of canvassers from following up the circulation campaign until yesterday, when TWENTY more brand new subscribers were added to the list, which, with the 2500 mark in sight for the Daily Review, spurs on the good work of circulation. Have you stopped to consider that with 2,000 subscribers, it means that at least TEN THOUSAND readers pore over the columns of this paper five days in the week? And do you know that from TWELVE THOUSAND TO TWENTY THOUSAND people read the Sunday Review? Subscribe now, and get one of our premiums in the shape of a photograph of yourself, your family, your home, your mine or of anything you wish.

Following is the circulation of the Review to date, and it is well to bear in mind that the Review is the only paper in this territory that gives a detailed statement of its circulation.

City Circulation, Nov. 17	855
Increase, Tombstone Canyon, Nov. 19	20
City Circulation November 19	875

All contracts for advertising in the Review are based on the above statement. The circulation of the Review is greater than the combined circulation of all the daily newspapers in Cochise county. Our circulation books are open to advertisers. Watch the circulation of the Review grow.

The above figures of the Review refer strictly to the bona fide daily circulation of the Review. The Sunday circulation of this paper is never less than 2500, and ranges from that figure to 4000.

HEAD END COLLISION THIRTY-ONE KILLED

Peoria, Ill., Nov. 19.—Thirty-one men were killed and at least forty were injured today in a head-end collision between the west bound freight train and a work train on the Cleveland, Cincinnati and Chicago and St. Louis railroad between Mackinaw and Tremont, Ill. The bodies have been taken from the debris, which is piled thirty feet high on the tracks. A huge pile of broken timber, twisted and distorted iron and steel. The bodies are mangled so that many are unrecognizable. Head and most of the injured of the crew of the work train. News on both locomotives jumped in time to save their lives. The collision occurred in a deep pit at the beginning of a sharp curve, neither train being visible to the crew of the other till they were within fifty feet of each other. Each engineer set brakes and sounded whistles and then leaped. The trains struck with such force that the sound was heard for miles around. One second after the collision the boiler of the work train exploded, throwing heavy iron bars and timbers several hundred feet. The dead are: Robert King, Thomas Troy, William Eads, Charles E. Meyers, George Smith, George Harmon, John Doran, John Smith, Frederick Bachman, John Shaw, Stephen Cutler, and twenty unidentified dead bodies, which are mangled beyond recognition.

CARRIE NATION FIRED OUT ROOSEVELT REFUSES TROOPS

Washington, Nov. 19.—Carrie Nation was forcibly ejected from the executive offices this morning. She called early and demanded to see the president. When Secretary Loeb declined, she became so demonstrative that he called upon two officers to remove her. Later she rushed into the gallery of the senate and shouted at the top of her voice: "Saloons are anarchy; they are treason and conspiracy!" She was thrown out and afterwards arrested and fined $25 for disturbance. She paid the fine. The authorities are considering her advisability of having her examined as to her sanity, of which there is grave doubt.

Denver, Nov. 19.—Gov. Jas. H. Peabody this evening stated to a representative of the Associated Press that troops will be ordered to Telluride to guard the mines and mills there, tomorrow. The governor said he could not say just how many would be sent, but the number would be in the neighborhood of 400 or 500. It will be a mixed command, including infantry, cavalry and artillery, and will be under command of Major Zeph T. Hill. The governor received a message from President Roosevelt today refusing the federal troops, as it is evident the resources of the State are not exhausted.

TOM HORN SLAYER OF MEN

SUCCUMBS TO RELIGIOUS INFLUENCE AT LAST MINUTE—IS TO BE PERMITTED TO KILL HIMSELF.

Cheyenne, Nov. 19.—Tom Horn, the convicted murderer of Willie Nickell, and the reputed slayer of half a dozen men, realizing that all hope was gone, prepared tonight to meet his God. Rev. Mr. Watson, of St. Mark's Episcopal church, assisted by a choir of three, held service in the cell of the condemned cattle detective this evening, at which Horn, for the first time, succumbed to religious influence. Horn seemed to slowly melt, and finally knelt down and prayed with the minister. After the service was over Horn declared to Watson that he realized his position and that he realized that there was no hope for him. The authorities here do not anticipate an attempt to rescue Horn tonight, but in spite of this they have taken every precaution to prevent a rescue.

UNITED STATES NOW STANDS SPONSOR FOR REPUBLIC OF PANAMA

Washington, Nov. 19.—The Panama commissioners, Dr. Anador and Frederico Boyd, today consulted with Minister Bunau-Varilla and Frank D. Paivey of New York, legal adviser to the legation. It is said that they read over the treaty signed yesterday by Mr. Hay and M. Bunau-Varilla, and discussed its terms and provisions in detail. It met with their hearty approval. At the close of the conference the Panama commissioners spent the evening visiting friends in Washington.

From various sources additional information in regard to the terms and provisions of the treaty has been obtained. Under the treaty the United States guarantees and agrees to maintain the independence of Panama. It is said that this clause was inserted in order to set at rest all questions as to the recognition of Panama as an independent nation by other governments.

The United States undertakes to construct a modern system of sewers and waterworks for the cities of Panama and Colon, and has the right to collect tolls for a period of fifty years in order to pay the cost of construction with interest.

REPRESENTS HIS WIFE NO LONGER ROLLED PEANUT AROUND A BLOCK

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—A formal revocation of the power of attorney which Mrs. Theresa A. Oelrichs granted to her husband, Herman Oelrichs, on April 21, 1897, was filed here yesterday at the office of the city and county at the request of Mrs. Oelrichs.

The document is short, and was executed in New York, November 5, before a commissioner of deeds for California.

It revokes the powers granted of control over all property belonging to Mrs. Oelrichs in this city and the state generally.

Mrs. William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., is a sister of Mrs. Oelrichs, and is also a sister of the power of attorney she gave Mr. Oelrichs on April 21, 1897. The document which she revoked Mr. Oelrichs' right to legally represent her in business matters on the coast has arrived in San Francisco, but has not yet been filed for record.

New York, Nov. 19.—Keen interest was caused in New York by the news that Mrs. Theresa A. Oelrichs, wife of Herman Oelrichs, has revoked the general power of attorney which she gave to her husband in 1897. For years Mr. and Mrs. Oelrichs were prominent in New York society, but they have not taken as prominent a part as usual in social affairs this season.

Judge Holds Troths Plighted on the Sabbath to Be Valueless.

Philadelphia, Nov. 19.—If you promise to marry a girl, you can back out of it legally, providing you are cautious enough to repeat the troth Monday, or any of the other working days. This ruling by Judge Bettler won a breach of promise suit for Andrew Jackson Tull, who was sued by Miss Amelia Powellsack. Tull's attorneys urged that even if the proposal had been bona fide, it was worthless because of having been made on Sunday, a legal dies non.

Luckily some thoughtful member of the crowd foresaw such an emergency, and produced another peanut. Several times this one was lost, but the young men with the lanterns always found it. With perspiration running down his face Hoffman was carried into the saloon amid cheers, after having paid his bet.

"No more peanut bets for mine," said Hoffman, who is in the baggage department on Ellis road. "The next thing I push around the block will be a Saratoga trunk. You can get at it better."

CUBAN RECIPROCITY TREATY BILL PASSED

Washington, Nov. 19.—The house today, by a rising vote of 335 to 61, passed the bill to make effective the Cuban Reciprocity Treaty. The dissenting votes were about equally divided between republicans and democrats, but there was no record vote, the minority having too few votes to order years and nays. The democrats, under the leadership of Williams, sought at last to secure amendments to the bill in accordance with the ac-

FATHER LA PORTE DIED LAST NIGHT

Denver, Nov. 19.—Father Lepore, who was shot last night, died about 11 o'clock tonight. Joseph Sorici can not recover. Nothing new developed as to the cause of the shooting, but it is generally believed that it is a disagreement over money. The story of a card game is discredited, as no evidence was found in the room where the shooting occurred. Father Lepore had been a resident of Denver for a great many years. He was beloved by his parishioners, and why his slayer should have killed the priest is not known. Sorici, who is dying tonight, is practically unknown here, but came from Pittsburgh and was evidently well acquainted with the dead priest.
